The liquid that comes out of the mouth of the Prophet (saw) is his saliva and it never becomes impure: The liquid that comes out which does not come up to the mouth is poured out and it never becomes impure. Hadith 41. The Prophet (saw) wiped over the Khuffs after wiping over the socks: Sayyiduna Anas bin Malik relates that the Messenger of Allah (saw) wiped over his khuffs after wiping over his socks. Hadith 42. The Prophet (saw) is not asked about what he does not know except in three situations: 1) When he is asked to judge between people. For this reason, he is asked to make decisions and deliver fatwas (Islamic legal opinions). He is also questioned about his decisions if people disagree on these. He alone has the right to make decisions and pass judgments because of his knowledge of what is good or bad for human beings. He will not make decisions about what is not of this world. 2) When he is asked about the laws of Heaven. He will be asked to explain the signs of Allah and answer questions about the laws that are clearly revealed to him. 3) When he is asked about his actions that have taken place in the past, present or future. This request is acceptable if it is clear that he cannot know more than what already has been revealed(s). If there are questions concerning these matters, then only God knows what has happened in the past, present or future. Hadith 43. Allah will not bring forth one more Prophet after Muhammad (saw): Sayyiduna Abu Hurairah (ra) relates that the Messenger of Allah (saw) said, ""I swear by Allah, O men ! A new prophet will not come after me. And if he did, the people would kill him."" Also, it has been reported that Sayyiduna Abu Hurairah (ra) said that the Messenger of Allah (saw) said: ""Each of you should ask of me what he does not know for I do know what they do not know."" Hadith 44.
